Monthly School Report
February 2021

1. First Term Examination for S.1, S.2, S.4 and S.5 students
Owing to the pandemic, the Education Bureau (EDB) announced that the suspension of face to face lessons will continue until the Lunar New Year Holiday. EDB can allow one-sixth of our students to return to school to take internal examinations. Our school arranged for our students to take examinations in several consecutive periods. The Mock Examination for S.6 students and the First Term Examination for S.3 students have been conducted smoothly in January. The First Term Examinations for S.4 to S.5 students (from 25th January to 9th February) were also held. The First Term Examinations for S.1 to S.2 students are held after the Lunar New Year Holiday (from 22nd February to 5th March).

2. Going Over Mock Examination Papers for S.6 students by online mode
Owing to the class suspension, the arrangement of going over mock examination papers for S.6 was conducted online. On 27th January, S.6 Students were asked to collect their marked examination scripts. S.6 subject teachers went over the papers with students through an online platform.

3. Farewell to Graduates Online Assembly
Because of the EDB announcement regarding the suspension of face-to-face lessons, the Farewell to Graduates Assembly was conducted online on 5th February.

4. Special Meeting of the School Administration Committee
On 4th February, I chaired the special meeting. We discussed the arrangement of the First Term Examination and the prolonged period of class suspension after the Lunar New Year Holiday.

5. Special Staff Meeting
On 8th February, I chaired the special staff meeting. We discussed the arrangement of the First Term Examination and the prolonged period of class suspension after the Lunar New Year Holiday.

6. Cancellation of the S.4 Life Education Camp
Because of the EDB announcement about the suspension of face-to-face lessons, the Life Education Camp scheduled from 24th to 26th February for S.4 students to help them adapt to the changes in the Senior Secondary School Curriculum and set up their own life goals was cancelled.

7. Cancellation of the PTA Meeting and Parents' Talk

On 26th February, the Executive Committee of the PTA was held.
